

2008 Gold Level Contractor Safety Award

National Railroad Construction & Maintenance Association Safety

Accepting the award for MEC is John Fisher, Vice President of Business Development for MEC's Transportation District. Shown from left to right are: Wayne Russell, an award judge, John Fisher, and John Zuspan, NRC Board.

Mass. Electric Construction Co. (MEC) has been named the winner of the National Railroad Construction & Maintenance Association (NRC) 2008 Gold Level Contractor Safety Award. MEC has been awarded this honor for the last three years in a row, and five of the last six.

Contest criteria includes: Company safety program elements, Worker's Compensation Experience Rating, OSHA 300A log and web site printout and Roadway Worker Protection training.